

2018 Spotlight Awards

- We introduced this program for the first time in 2016 and so this is our 3rd year of the program.
- As you recall, the Spotlight Award is given to individuals within Business Affairs in recognition of one or more of the following:
 - Alignment with department values
 - Cross department collaboration
 - Significant project results
 - Outstanding operations at the local level

Name	Department	Achievement
Tracy Holt	Office of Chief Risk Officer	Tracy is highly respected throughout the campus community and she strongly represents OCRO's core values of Integrity, Communication, Accountability, Teamwork, and Commitment to Quality. Her tremendous work ethic, her commitment to the success of others, her quality of work, and her excellent judgment all factor into her achieving this award.
Megan Dietrich	Office of Research Administration	Megan brings forward a unique combination of hands-on knowledge and experience, combined with a passion to help campus administrators and faculty achieve positive and successful experiences when using SeRA and related systems and tools.
Satarupa Banerjee	Financial Management Services	Satarupa is an exceptional business architect as evidenced in her leadership and execution on a number of key initiatives, to include: the design and implementation of the Expense Request System, designing and serving as the lead liaison for the Financial Assurance Initiative (FICO), leading UAT testing for the P2P process on the Oracle Upgrade project and serving as a subject matter expert on the Evolve Financial Reporting program.
Lan Ma	Financial Management Services	Lan has been instrumental in the growth in the University's legal global footprint supporting accounting operations, year-end close, financial statements and audits for 6 global subsidiaries.

Denise Ochoa	Office of the CFO	Denise’s dedication and excellent contributions associated with the launch and management of the new alternative worksites for the whole of Stanford is why she is worthy of this recognition.
Rebecca Tran	University IT	Rebecca distinguishes herself as an excellent Executive Assistant. Her work is consistently exceptional; nearly flawless, she is a patient, attentive, and highly effective listener; she is also an outstanding writer and excellent speaker.
John Bickar & Shea McKinney	University IT	Shea and John identified a major security vulnerability with our new platform, Acquia, and worked closely with ISO colleagues to investigate the issues and negotiate over a number of months to ensure the vendor delivered on promises to correct the issues and mitigate the risks.
Misty Rivera & Tim Brown	University IT	Both Misty and Tim played instrumental roles in completing a project which included cross-organizational coordination with the vendor, the Healthcare Account Team, and Hospital Executives forming a successful plan to remove thousands of insecure paggers.
Bhavya Gupta	University IT	Bhavya led the Dashlane password manager rollout within ISO from start to finish. This high visibility project was executed flawlessly and reflected Bhavya’s characteristic commitment to excellence.

- One more round of applause for our Spotlight Award winners for 2018. They each have a letter of appreciation from me, a $500 gift card and will be invited to have lunch with me next year. Thank you all for what you do for Business Affairs and for Stanford.
